The Qur'an: A Contemporary Approach To A Veiled Text 2nd Ed

This study utilises contemporary linguistic techniques to probe the Qur'an's language, structure, and evidence of divine authority. The author compares the language of the Qur'an with the language of pre-Islamic poetry, the Prophet's words (hadith), and the language of the Arab past and present, to demonstrate that although the Qur'an was revealed in Arabic it is an all-time, all-place, and all-people scripture. Modernistic approaches to the Qur'an, based on a study of the Qur'an's language and context, provide a deeper understanding of the Qur'an's teaching and a more comprehensive and coherent understanding of Islam. This second edition includes updates on recent developments in the field of Qur'anic studies. First published in 1995, it is now a standard reference work in the field.
